THE SUNNY SIDE OF THE HOSPITAL, Canada, April 6, 2010—

You say you'll change the constitution,
Well you know we all want to change your head.
You tell me it's the institution,
well you know you better free your mind instead,
but if you go carrying pictures of Chairman Mao,
you ain't going to make it with anyone anyhow.
Don't you know know it's gonna be all right.

(Lennon/McCartney)

The government has been focused of late on such an unsexy debate, at least as it concerns the vast majority of young people. We go unheard, facing massive hurdles of institutional unemployment and forced penury, in addition to our own technology fleet-winged stupidity and self-absorption. When will the young people of this country wake up and strike back at the anarchist wing of aging baby-boomers? Every red cent they put into these massive spending programs might as well be our tax to cross the Stygian waterway. Am I serious? I have no idea. Let's get back to meditating on matters beyond the mortal coil. Remember when we went to the moon, beat back Hitler's huns, and achieved plateaus of national pride? We can't ward off death with political horse-trading and back-alley sausage-making. While we're alive, let's reach for a goal worthy of our place in history. Screw the debate which is central to solving peoples' sob stories. Ultimately we're more than bodies, we're loci of ideals, thoughts, and principles. Free your minds, bitches.
